Cool-de-sac, a children's entertainment center and restaurant (5701 Sunset Drive) in South Miami, will be hosting a "Back to Cool Pep Rally" on August 14. The restaurant will give one free admission for each set of school supplies donated to benefit the foster children of Family Resource Center of South Florida (FRC), a leading provider of child welfare services. School Stuff Plus will be providing supply packages for the kids and will be sold at the door or online for $15.00 per child.

The day will kick off from 11a.m. – 1 p.m., with "cool art lessons" from Coolde- sac's favorite pop artist, Ed King, whose paintings adorn the walls of the of the play cafe with his child-friendly artwork. From 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. will be the "Back to Cool Pep Rally" with performances from local cheerleaders and a marching band along with other after school activity demonstrations like karate, dance and tutoring.

"We are so grateful for our partnership with Cool-de-sac," said Oren Wunderman, Ph.D., executive director of FRC. "Owner, Jose Luis Bueno's support of the children from FRC has been amazing, and we are looking forward to seeing the smiles on their faces when they receive their back to school supplies."

"Family Resource Center is such an amazing organization, and I along with my Cool-de-sac family are happy to help children in need in any way we can," said Jose Luis Bueno, owner of Cool-de-sac.

About Cool-de-sac: Cool-de-sac is the first children's entertainment center that was not only built for children, but also for parents. It creates a space where parents will enjoy quality time with their kids throughout the seven entertainment areas and mixes it with a restaurant that serves healthy meals that the little ones and adults will both love. www.cool-de-sac.com.
